Dear colleagues and friends,

The International Committee of Memorial Museums in Remembrance of the Victims of Public Crimes (IC MEMO) invites you to participate in the 2015 Conference “Form-Architecture-Memory” to take place in Munich and Flossenbuerg, Germany, November 8-11, 2015. International speakers from countries including Mexico, Russia, Ukraine, Japan, Israel, the Netherlands, Belgium, France, Austria, Germany, Spain, the United States, Armenia, Romania and Lithuania will be sharing their expertise on topics such as “Activating Social Action in Memorial Museums” and “New Exhibitions dedicated to the 100th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide”. The keynote speaker is Professor Barbara Holzer of Zurich.

The theme of the Conference will be further explored in various scheduled visits, including the recently-opened Munich Documentation Centre for the History of National Socialism and the site of the future Munich Olympic Park, where a new memorial commemorating the victims of the 1972 Munich Massacre is being planned. Participants will also visit the new Education Center at the Flossenbuerg Memorial Site and join in the solemn commemoration of Kristallnacht, the Night of Broken Glass (November 9/10, 1938), at the site of the former Main Synagogue of Munich.

IC MEMO is one of 31 International Committees in ICOM, the International Council of Museums with over 35,000 members, professionals and academics who represent the global museum community. Join us at IC MEMO, share your expertise and network with colleagues who excel in their fields the world over.

Timetable

Sunday, November 8

The Opening Day

Registration Desk

The registration desk in the lobby of the Jewish Museum Munich will be open from 10:00 AM till 6:30 PM.

Optional Tours

Meeting and starting point for all tours: Jewish Museum Munich (St.-Jakobs-Platz 16, 80331 Munich)
Participants may join one tour
Additional instructions will be posted on the IC MEMO web site before the Conference date.

Dachau Memorial Site

Start 11:00 AM

Dachau was the first concentration camp set up in the Third Reich. This camp served as a model for all later concentration camps and as a "school of violence" for the SS men. Between 1996 and 2003 a new exhibition on the history of the Dachau concentration camp was created, following the leitmotif of the "Path of the Prisoners".

Munich Documentation Centre for the History of National Socialism

Start 1:00 PM

The Munich Documentation Centre for the History of National Socialism opened public on 1 May 2015. The new centre of learning and remembrance is built on the Brienner Strasse, site once occupied by the NSDAP headquarters. The permanent exhibition in German and English, extending over several floors, forms the centrepiece of the new Documentation Centre. There is also a series of special exhibitions. In addition, one entire floor houses a Learning Centre where visitors can study Nazi history in greater depth.

Munich Olympic Park

Start 1:30 PM

On September 5, 1972 the Games of the Twentieth Olympiad, the "Happy Games" in Munich were interrupted by a terrorist attack against the Israeli Olympic Team. The Munich Massacre ended a day later leaving 11 Israeli sportsmen and a German police officer murdered. The State of Bavaria, the City of Munich and other partners including the International Olympic Committee are planning a new memorial commemorating the victims of 1972. The tour will pass by the existing monuments of 1973 and 1998 and include a presentation of the planned place of remembrance.
